COMMONWEALTH DAY 2010

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY & SOCIETY
COMMONWEALTH DAY 8 MARCH 2010

Commonwealth Day will be celebrated Monday 8 March. Nurses are invited to host a tea party in their workplace to celebrate Commonwealth Day and particularly to celebrate the admission of Rwanda as the 54th member of the modern Commonwealth.

The Commonwealth is a voluntary association of 54 independent member countries - from Africa to Asia, from the Pacific to the Caribbean, from Europe to North America. The Commonwealth includes some of the world's biggest countries and some of its smallest; some of the richest countries and some of the poorest. The Commonwealth is often called a family of nations and peoples. Its special strength lies in the combination of the diversity of its members and their shared inheritance in language, culture and the rule of law. There are about 1.7 billion people in the Commonwealth. That is more than a quarter (29.8%) of the world's population.

The purpose of the Commonwealth is to:

- * promote democracy and good governance, sustainable economic and social development, respect for human rights and the rule of law, gender equality and protection of the environment,
- * promote partnership and co-operation among its members,
- * promote understanding and tolerance among its citizens, and
- * reduce prejudice, ignorance, disease and poverty.

NAMIBIA JOINS THE CNF

The CNF is delighted to welcome Namibia as a new CNF member from the CNF Eastern, Central and Southern Africa Region. Namibia has a population of around two million people and has the second lowest population density of any country in the world. Namibia gained its independence from South Africa in 1990. Critical issues for nurses in Namibia are high levels of stress and burnout related to heavy workloads and concerns related to caring for patients infected with HIV and AIDS. The CNF is looking forward to working with the Namibian Nurses Association through their spokesperson, Ms Christine Gordon.

WEAR WHITE ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 8 MARCH

To celebrate the 100th year of International Women's Day on 8th March 2010 the White Ribbon Alliance is asking women across the world to wear something white and come together in solidarity and celebration. All around the world WRA members and maternal health champions will be holding dinner parties or similar events and celebrating with friends. You can add your voice to this important celebration and help build the growing pressure for change - and for more resources for women's health - by signing up to the White Ribbon Alliance and pledging to hold your own dinner party in aid of the global campaign to stop the needless deaths of women in childbirth.

To help you celebrate the 100th year of International Women's Day, the White Ribbon Alliance for Safe Motherhood has launched: The Global Dinner Party Guide by Yasmin Mills.

Download the Guide and add your voice to the campaign by pledging to hold a dinner party at: <http://www.whiteribbonalliance.org/internationalwomensday/iwd.html>
