The theme for the conference is

HEALTH FOR ALL: nurses and midwives meeting the challenge - showing the way

Our world is facing many challenges – inequality; poverty; wars; displacement; poor health outcomes; biodiversity loss; food insecurity; a climate crisis – and so it goes on. Whether it is improving health outcomes; achieving universal health coverage; preparing for or responding to disasters; mitigating climate change; meeting the Sustainable Development Goals; or any other challenge - nurses and midwives are meeting these challenges and showing the way to a safer, happier, more equal, and more prosperous world.

26th CNMF BIENNIAL MEETING OF MEMBERS

26 September 2024
Malta

SAVE THE DATE: PLAN TO ATTEND!

The CNMF President and Board are pleased to announce that the 26th CNMF Biennial Meeting of Members will be held on 26th September 2024 at the new premises of the Malta Union of Midwives and Nurses in Qormi Malta.

The Biennial Meeting of Members is the decision making body of the CNMF. In addition to formal reports, the Biennial Meeting will be endorsing the next two year strategic directions for the CNMF and discussing three new policies: Universal health coverage; Health equity; and Emergency and disaster preparedness.

Members of CNMF are encouraged to attend. Observers are also welcome however registration is essential for catering and organisational purposes.

The registration form is available to download on the CNMF website homepage:
<https://www.commonwealthnurses.org>.

Further information will be mailed directly to CNMF members and as papers for the meeting become available. The papers will also be uploaded to the CNMF website.

If members have any questions, please email jill@commonwealthnurses.org.

ONLINE CONSULTATION

The Commonwealth Foundation is the Commonwealth agency for civil society. The Commonwealth Heads of Government meeting (CHOGM) will be held in October 2024 in Samoa.

In the leadup to the CHOGM, the Commonwealth Foundation is hosting an online consultation to help shape the agenda for Commonwealth leaders. The consultation will also help inform the content of the Commonwealth People's Forum which is held in conjunction with CHOGM.

The Foundation is seeking contributions in the form of concrete recommendations and ideas on three priority areas:

- Climate justice
- Health justice
- Freedom of expression.
